TRUE HUMILITY REWARDED

"He that humbleth himself shall be exalted" #Luke 18:14

It ought not to be difficult for us to humble ourselves, for what have we to be proud of? We ought to take the lowest place without being told to do so. If we are sensible and honest we shall be little in our own eyes. Especially before the Lord in prayer we shall shrink to nothing. There we cannot speak of merit, for we have none: our one and only appeal must be to mercy: "God be merciful to me a sinner."

Here is a cheering word from the throne. We shall be exalted by the Lord if we humble ourselves. For us the way upward is downhill. When we are stripped of self we are clothed with humility, and this is the best of wear. The Lord will exalt us in peace and happiness of mind; He will exalt us into knowledge of His Word and fellowship with Himself; He will exalt us in the enjoyment of sure pardon and justification. The Lord puts His honors upon those who can wear them to the honor of the Giver. He gives usefulness, acceptance, and influence to those who will not be puffed up by them, but will be abased by a sense of greater responsibility. Neither God nor man will care to lift up a man who lifts up himself; but both God and good men unite to honor modest worth.

O Lord, sink me in self that I may rise in thee.

Charles Haddon Spurgeon

“Christ is the Lord our righteousness”

S. Turner
(n.d.)

Hab.2: 4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

Christ is the Lord our Righteousness,
(For so the Scripture saith),
And justified, through Him, by grace,
I live by precious faith.

Christ is the only way to God,
To glory He's the path;
And through rich grace, in that sure
road,
I walk by precious faith.

Christ is the Living Bread from heaven,
Which saves from second death,
And on that Bread to me 'tis given
To feed by precious faith.

Christ is my Captain, full of might,
And whilst I dwell on earth,
He will enable me to fight
The fight of precious faith.

Christ is my Rock, and though my foes
Display their upmost wrath,
Yet in the power which He bestows
I stand by precious faith.

Christ is my Guise, and will be so
Till I resign my breath;
Then shall I bid this world adieu,
And die in precious faith.

“Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim”

Charles Wesley
(1707-1788)

Acts16: 17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad His wonderful Name;
The Name all victorious of Jesus extol,
His kingdom is glorious and rules over all.

The waves of the sea have lift up their voice,
Sore troubled that we in Jesus rejoice;
The floods they are roaring, but Jesus is here;
While we are adoring, He always is near.

When devils engage, the billows arise,
And horribly rage, and threaten the skies:
Their fury shall never our steadfastness
shock,
The weakest believer is built on a rock.

God ruleth on high, almighty to save,
And still He is nigh, His presence we have;
The great congregation His triumph shall
sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus, our King.

“Salvation to God, who sits on the throne!”
Let all cry aloud and honor the Son;
The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces and worship the Lamb.

Then let us adore and give Him His right,
All glory and power, all wisdom and
 might;
All honor and blessing with angels above,
And thanks never ceasing and infinite love.
